

What you Need to Know About Pipelines

- Wednesday, March 15, 2017, 6:30 pm – 8:15 pm
- West Shore Unitarian Universalist Church,
20401 Hilliard Blvd, Rocky River, Ohio 44116

Pipelines like the Keystone XL and Dakota Access have been the focus of protests in the Environmental Movement. NEO has its own pipelines that communities are protesting.

Come hear Cheryl Johncox, National Dirty Fuels Organizer for the Sierra Club, and Kathie Jones, Convener of Sustainable Medina County, explain why pipelines have become such a controversial topic nationally and in Ohio. Learn about NEO's Nexus and Rover Pipelines and whether they are important to our energy independence.

This event is co-sponsored by CLEAN and West Shore FACT.

Pizza at 6:30, speakers at 6:50.

Free and open to the public.
